Subject: formatted version of Chap 6
06 Scenarios v1.docx

Hi Barb & Phil,

Attached is a formatted version of Chap 6, with the track changes reconciled (everything accepted) and footnotes removed (I've added the references to my master list of ones that need to get added for final). I kept in all comments that weren't easy fixes.

If it's okay with both of you, let's use this version as we move forward (it will save us some trouble at the back end, I think). If we use track changes on this version (v1), and reconcile into new versions as we go, I think we'll be able to keep everything straight (or at least as straight as possible).

I hope to work on the Stressors Evaluated section today - if I make substantial progress, I'll send out an updated version later today (or, at minimum, by the end of the week).

Thanks, Kate
